

This letter is to formally announce my resignation from [company name] as of today. It will be my last day [in two weeks].

It has been a pleasure working for you. Please let me know how I can help smooth the transition when I leave. Explanation Two years is the age of most children. They are big enough to understand and identify with concepts that would bore an adult.

Regards,

[Your Signature]